

N.Y. Executive Law, Article 15 Human Rights Law

13. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice (i) for any person to boycott or blacklist, or to refuse to buy from, sell to or trade with, or otherwise discriminate against any person, because of the race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, military status, sex, or disability of such person, or of such person's partners, members, stockholders, directors, officers, managers, superintendents, agents, employees, business associates, suppliers or customers, or (ii) for any person willfully to do any act or refrain from doing any act which enables any such person to take such action.

This subdivision shall not apply to:

- (a) Boycotts connected with labor disputes; or
- (b) Boycotts to protest unlawful discriminatory practices.
