

Family Caregiving Workshop

Legal and Financial Planning for Family Caregivers

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Noon – 1:30 PM

offered free of charge at the

Tompkins County Office for the Aging,
214 W. Martin Luther King, Jr./State Street, Ithaca

Presented by: Marcie Finlay, Esq.

Ms. Finlay, an elderlaw attorney, will discuss legal issues that affect elderly individuals and their families, especially issues related to planning for the expense of long term care and planning for incapacity (advance directives, guardianship).

Responding to Dementia-Related Behavior

Thursday, December 6, 2018

Noon-1:30pm

offered free of charge at the

Tompkins County Office for the Aging,
214 W. Martin Luther King, Jr./State Street, Ithaca

Presented by: Staff from CNY Alzheimer's Association

Staff from the Central New York Alzheimer's Association will provide practical information and resources to help dementia caregivers learn how to decipher and best respond to challenging behaviors.

Bring your brown bag lunch, if you wish. Beverages provided.

Pre-registration is required.

Call the Office for the Aging to register or for details:

274-5450

or e-mail: cbullis@tomkins-co.org