Members schedule flu clinic appointments by calling the ProAct Help Desk directly beginning on September 1st. If a member is unable to attend any of the options available for Fall 2017, members can also obtain their flu shot at their local pharmacy as a fully covered benefit.

How do members sign up for a flu shot?

Beginning on September 1st, any member can call ProAct direct at 1-877-635-9545 any time, as their help desk is open 24/7. Members can sign up for their flu shot, they can also ask benefit questions and can have access to a staff pharmacist for other questions of as well. Please have your ProAct member ID card handy.

Also members can sign up for a flu shot by emailing fluclinic@proactrx.com . If emailing, members will need to include their full name, member ID number, phone number, and timeframe in which the employee would like their shot scheduled. Each email will receive a confirmation email back once appointment has been scheduled.

What should members bring with them when attending a Consortium sponsored Flu Clinic?

A member would only need to bring his or her valid Excellus or ProAct member ID card. These flu shots will be available at no cost to the member.

Who is eligible to sign up for a flu shot?

- Any member or dependent who is covered by the Consortium (has an Excellus assigned member ID number)
- Must be age 19 and over (NYS Law)
