On 02/24/18 at approximately 0007 hours Deputy DAVENPOIRT and I responded to 33 Lansingville Rd in Lansing for a check the welfare report. While en route we were advised the caller, EAVES, THERESA who is the mother of an 11 year old stated the 11 year old is home alone with an autistic 14 year old brother. I attempted to contact the mother while en route with negative results.

upon my arrival I spoke to JONES, AURORA I had to knock several times and she wouldn't open the door up all the way because she was told she wasn't supposed to. She was on the phone with her mom when she answered. After speaking with AUROA all appeared OK, she clearly was able to contact her mom and she also had her dads number. AURORA further stated her dad is at work at IC

I spoke to THERSA via video chat. I advised her that police can't preemptively call CPS or remove children from a home where there is no danger. I advised THERESA both children stated they were OK and there was no danger. THERESA told AURORA to tell me what has happened in the past. THERESA also stated she has another daughter that lives in the house but is at some dance competition somewhere but THERESA isn't sure where

AURORA stated her dad has pushed her around in the past and has yelled at her over a messy bedroom or not behaving. I asked THERESA if she has contacted CPS in regards to this and she stated she has and they refused to take the case. I advised both THERESA and AURORA I will contact AURORA;s dad and ask about his schedule. Both were concerned that he will get angry and either hit or yell at AURORA for calling her mother. I advised both I will make it very clear AURORA didn't call the police.
