During a disaster in Tompkins County, such as an ice or snow storm, power outage or flooding, you may have both emergency and non-emergency questions ... calling the correct number can help us help you better and faster

Who should you call when disaster strikes?

Dial 911

• Injuries or medical conditions requiring immediate attention
• Downed trees or power lines that pose a danger
• Suspicious activity
• Malicious destruction of property

Dial 211 or ... (877)211-8667

Non-life-threatening Information about:
• Shelters
• Warming stations
• Sandbags
• Food resources

www.tompkinsready.org www.hsctc.org